1 About

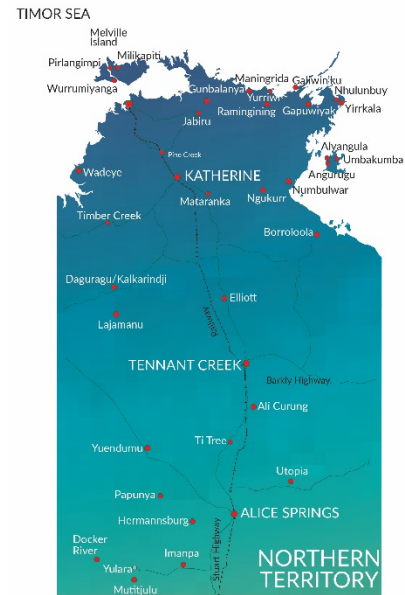

The name Maningrida comes from the local Kunbidji clan name Manayingkarirra. Manayingkarirra is derived from mane djang karirra, meaning the place where the dreaming changed shape.

Maningrida is located on the Central Arnhem coast at the mouth of the Liverpool River. It is 250 km west of Nhulunbuy and 352 km east of Darwin.

Thirty two outstations within a 10,000 square kilometre area are serviced from Maningrida by the Bawinanga Aboriginal Corporation, (email info@bawinanga.com, website www.bawinanga.com).

1.1 Population

In the 2016 Census, there were 2,308 people in Maningrida (State Suburbs) Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people made up 89.2% of the population. The median age of people in Maningrida (State Suburbs) was 27 years.

1.2 Power and Water

Electricity is supplied by a diesel generator supplemented by a solar panel array. Chlorinated and fluoridated town water is supplied via a bore field south of town, and waste water is treated in sewerage ponds on the outskirts of town.

1.3 ICT Information

- Full telephone and internet services.
- Broadband Satellite Internet Services – Telstra
- 3G Mobile Coverage
- Television Networks – Imparja, SBS, Seven Central and ABC

1.4 Access

1.4.1 Road

Access to Maningrida is via a sealed road to Cahill's Crossing, and a dirt road for a further 250km (4WD vehicle is recommended but not essential). During the wet season access is limited, with the road often closed for extended periods. The drive takes approximately seven hours from Darwin.

1.4.2 Air

AirNorth operates daily passenger services to Maningrida and lands at the sealed airstrip. Flights take an hour from Darwin and connect through to Milingimbi and Galiwinku.

1.4.3 Sea

One Darwin-based company provides a barge (sea freight) service twice a week to Maningrida throughout the year.

1.5 Local Government

The West Arnhem Regional Council provides local government services in Maningrida. Its headquarters is located in Jabiru, with a Service Delivery Centre located in Maningrida.

1.6 Land Tenure

Maningrida is part of Arnhem Land which is Aboriginal Land under the NT Land Rights Act (NT) 1976. Permits to enter onto Aboriginal Land are required and are available from the Northern Land Council.
