1 About Ali Curung

Ali Curung is a Kaiditch (Kaytetye) word meaning "Country of dogs" or "Dog Dreaming". The story relates to an area of land ancestral dogs visited while travelling around the country. The community adopted the emblem of a dog to signify the importance of the ceremonial story.

Warrabri was established in 1956 under its original name of ‘Warrabri Settlement’. The community changed its name to Ali Curung in 1978. There are four main language groups: Warlpiri, Warumungu, Kaiditch and Alyawarra.

1.1 Population

It was estimated in 2016 that Ali Curung had a population of 494 people (State Suburbs). Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people made up 93.2% of the population. The median age of people in Ali Curung (State Suburbs) was 24 years.
