1 About Numbulwar

Numbulwar is located at the mouth of the Rose River on the western coast of the Gulf of Carpentaria, and adjacent to the extreme SW coast of Groote Eylandt. Numbulwar is approximately 400 km east of Katherine, 570 km south east of Darwin and 250 km south west of Nhulunbuy.

Outstations

There are nine Outstations around Numbulwar that have residents. There are several other Outstations, which do not have residents living permanently, and movement to these is not anticipated in the future. The Outstations with residents are Wuyagiba, Andanangki (Walker River), Yillila, Dharrari, Alharrgan, Yimidarri (Wandu), Wumajbarr, Markalawa, Waldharr (Harris Creek).

Languages

Wubuy, Anindilyakwa, Mara, Wandarrang, Waagilak/Ritharrngu, Ngalakan, Ngandi, Rembarrnga, and Djambarrpuynu, although the younger generation speaks Kriol, an English-based Creole. English is the third or fourth language spoken by students.

1.1 Population

In the 2016 Census, there were 723 people in Numbulwar (State Suburbs). Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people made up 94.0% of the population. The median age of people in Numbulwar (State Suburbs) was 27 years.

1.2 Power and water

Electricity is supplied by diesel generators. Chlorinated water is supplied to the town via 11 bores which are situated on the town boundary. Two sewage ponds where wastewater is treated are situated approximately 1.2km from the town boundary.

1.3 ICT information

- Full telephone and internet services.
- Broadband Satellite Internet Services – Telstra
- The community is serviced by Telstra 4G only. Other mobile carriers are unavailable.
- Television – Digital

1.4 Access

1.4.1 Air

Numbulwar is also accessible by air and has an all-weather, sealed airstrip linked to the community via a 5 km sealed road. Air travel chartered from Darwin is two hours or one hour from Katherine.
1.4.2 Road

During the dry season Numbulwar can be accessed by road. Travel time from Darwin via Katherine along the Roper Highway is approximately 10-12 hours via the Roper River and Ngukurr communities. Travel time from Nhulunbuy via Walker River and Harris Creek is approximately 4-6 hours. In both cases a 4wd is essential. Only during severe flooding at the Roper and Wilton Rivers which occurs only sporadically does the road become inaccessible. Bridges are currently under construction over the Roper and Wilton rivers and are due for completion in 2017.

1.4.3 Water

There is a fortnightly freight barge service from Darwin to Numbulwar.

1.5 Local government

The council is responsible for the co-ordination and delivery of a diverse range of services, including the maintenance and upgrade of parks and public services, waste management and the maintenance and upgrade of local roads, as well as the delivery of in-community programs and agency services on behalf of the Federal and Northern Territory Governments.

1.6 Land tenure

Land and planning:

- Town, area and zoning maps are in place; these establish a land use framework to guide development within the community. http://www.lands.nt.gov.au/planning/planning-scheme/indigenous-land-use-planning
- Cadastral survey is currently in draft; the cadastre formalises the boundaries of the land and supports the requirements under the NT Planning Act, enabling leases to be entered into for a period in excess of 12 years.
- Private home ownership, business and investment can be supported through S19 leases.
- All Land Use negotiations are carried out by the Land Council as the Statutory Land Negotiating Authority.
- Consent to use the land must be granted by the Land Owner. http://www.nlc.org.au/

3  Arts and culture

3.1  Numburindi Arts

Numburindi Arts is a project first started by the Numbulwar School Secondary Girls in 2010. This is the first Arts Centre in Numbulwar and the first chance people have to buy unique arts and crafts directly from the artists. The business has continued in the Ngarggu Senior Class for the past two years with both young women and men working on the project. In 2017 an arts centre will be constructed for the artists of the Numbulwar region. This is a project funded under the Governments Community Champions Program. The art centre will be located next to the Numbulwar General Store.
