Section C: Applicant criteria

In your application, you must present your information in a way that clearly addresses each award criterion. In developing your application, you may wish to take into account some of the considerations outlined below. These suggestions are not additional criteria, but are provided to give clarification of what may be relevant to include when writing against the criteria.

Criterion 1: Career and study achievements

- Why did you choose to undertake training (for example to get a job, learn new skills or meet new people)?
- What did you learn? How have you put this into practice?
- How well did you do in your study? What, in particular did you do well and why?
- How has the course helped you?
- What challenges did you face while completing your course and how did you overcome them? (For example, 'I found it difficult to speak English so I completed an English course before enrolling in my qualification'.)

Limit: 400 words

- Have you shared your knowledge with your family and community? (for example “I encourage my younger brother to complete a course and he got a job”.)

Limit: 400 words

Criterion 3: Ability to represent the training system at a broader level

Consider the following points in your response:

- If you won this award how could you promote training opportunities to people like you?

Information about having visual and / or audio recordings taken of you for the NT Government.

Before you agree to have any recordings taken of or including you for the Northern Territory Government, there are some important things you need to know.

Note: Where the words photo or photograph is used, this includes any other recordings, such as video, film and sound.

What will happen to my photograph once it is taken?

The Northern Territory Government will store your photograph digitally in its photographic database and library. The talent release form that you signed will be placed in a file. The photograph and the form will be cross referenced to ensure we have your permission to use your photograph.

Who can use my photograph?

Once stored in the database, your photograph may be used by any Northern Territory Government department or agency. Your photograph cannot be shared with any person, organisation or company outside of the Northern Territory Government without your express permission. This includes private companies, political parties, advertising agencies and charitable organisations.

Where will my photograph be used?

Your photo may be used in a variety of applications, ranging from small newsletters to major displays. Some of the typical places you might see your photo include:

- In newsletters distributed in the Territory and interstate in both printed and electronic format.
- In advertisements in newspapers, magazines or television in the Northern Territory and the rest of Australia.
- In a range of printed publications such as government strategy documents or brochures promoting or explaining government services.
- On government websites.
- On government displays.

What if I don't want my photograph to be used somewhere?

It can be quite a surprise to see your photograph blown up two metres tall at a display, or to suddenly find yourself appearing on television. You need to be aware that your photograph may be used in these situations unless you ask for it not to be. If there are circumstances where you do not want your photo used, make sure you write that down on the Talent Release Form you sign. Or if you are giving permission for your photograph to be used for one purpose only, you also need to write this down.

Or contact Chantelle Salandanan on 08 8935 7751.

Why do you need to know if I am Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander?

We appreciate that if you are Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander, there may be certain cultural sensitivities about using your image.
