Progression to the Australian Training Awards

The Australian Training Awards are the peak, national awards for vocational education and training, recognising innovation and excellence in the training sector. The Australian Training Awards are the culmination of the state and territory awards with winners from each state and territory competition in the national finals.

If the winner of this award delivers 50 or more qualifications (which are listed on its scope of registration in the NT) they will go on to compete for the Australian Large Training Provider of the Year Award at the Australian Training Awards.

If the winner of this award delivers less than 50 qualifications (which are listed on its scope of registration in the NT) they will go on to compete for the Australian Small Training Provider of the Year Award at the Australian Training Awards.

The original application from the winner of this category addressing the award criteria below and submitted through the NT Training Awards process will be used. Finalists will be announced by the Australian Training Awards early October 2018.

(Insert organisation name here)

Organisation Summary

Provide a brief description of your organisation, including the reasons why you are applying for this award.

Limit: 500 words

Section B: Criteria:

This information will be considered and used for short listing and judging purposes. Please be aware that your responses to the criteria will be strengthened by the inclusion of measurable and verifiable indicators (including student outcome data, client satisfaction data and external validation data).

The considerations listed under each criterion are provided to clarify what to include when writing against the criteria.

- Criterion 1: Leading practice in vocational education and training
- Criterion 2: Strategic planning processes
- Criterion 3: Student, employer and market focus
- Criterion 4: Human resource capability
- Criterion 5: Partnerships and links.

Criterion 1: Leading practice in vocational education and training

How you provide exceptional vocational education and training? For example, you may consider:

- How you demonstrate excellence and high level performance in national training arrangements
- How you demonstrate creativity and innovation in the design and development of your processes and techniques (operational or educational)
- How you provide creative and innovative solutions to emerging training needs
- The systems you have in place to manage, evaluate and enhance your VET products and services
- How you undertake continuous improvement and apply quality controls within your organisation.

Limit: 800 words

(Insert organisation name here)

Criterion 2: Strategic planning processes

How you plan and coordinate vocational education and training? For example, you may consider:

- Details of the external environment in which your organisation operates and its relationship to state/territory and national policies and priorities
- The systems you have in place for planning and communicating purpose, vision, goals, values and core business strategies (and for creating alignment across your whole organisation)
- The role of your leadership team in strategic planning
- How your planning processes embrace innovation and change, including your capacity to plan for (and adapt to) future changes in vocational education and training
- How you engage with ongoing VET policy reforms, including your capacity to implement change as a consequence of reform initiatives
- How you ensure the sustainability of your operations, including your understanding of risk and risk management.

Limit: 800 words

Criterion 3: Student, employer and market focus

How you monitor client and market needs? For example, you may consider:

- Your knowledge of – and how you respond to – students, employers and markets, including the systems you have in place for collecting and analysing data on client needs and expectations
- How you identify and attract new clients and new markets, and how you address these without impacting the sustainability of your operations
- How you collect and analyse data on student outcomes and completions
- How you measure success (e.g. outcome and completion data, satisfaction surveys, independent validations and evaluations, industry recognition, business outcomes from training activity)
- How you encourage access to your VET products and services, and the success you have achieved in meeting the needs of equity groups.

Limit: 800 words

(Insert organisation name here)

Criterion 4: Human resource capability

How you build the capacity of your workforce? For example, you may consider:

- The strategies you have in place to build staff capability (e.g. job design, personnel selection, staff training and development, performance management systems, two way feedback systems)
- Your capacity and flexibility to meet changing training needs and new training markets, including your response times for upskilling staff
- How you ensure constructive management/employee relations, including the emphasis you place on teamwork, participation and communication
- How your organisation recognises the well-being of staff as critical to business success.

Limit: 800 words

Criterion 5: Partnerships and links

How you establish genuine partnerships to support vocational education and training? For example, you may consider:

- The strategies you have in place to identify local/regional issues (e.g. social, economic, industrial or environmental issues) and how you incorporate these into your service delivery
- How you establish and monitor positive relationships with individuals, enterprises, industries and community groups
- How you build new, innovative and effective partnerships in the local or wider community
- How you ensure your partnerships are reciprocal (i.e. where each partner brings resources to the partnership and shares in outputs from the partnership).

Limit: 800 words

To be completed by all staff members participating in the NT Training Awards photo shoot.

Information about having visual and / or audio recordings taken of you for the NT Government.

Before you agree to have any recordings taken of or including you for the Northern Territory Government, there are some important things you need to know.

Note: Where the words photo or photograph is used, this includes any other recordings, such as video, film and sound.

What will happen to my photograph once it is taken?

The Northern Territory Government will store your photograph digitally in its photographic database and library. The talent release form that you signed will be placed in a file. The photograph and the form will be cross referenced to ensure we have your permission to use your photograph.

Who can use my photograph?

Once stored in the database, your photograph may be used by any Northern Territory Government department or agency. Your photograph cannot be shared with any person, organisation or company outside of the Northern Territory Government without your express permission. This includes private companies, political parties, advertising agencies and charitable organisations.

Where will my photograph be used?

Your photo may be used in a variety of applications, ranging from small newsletters to major displays. Some of the typical places you might see your photo include:

- In newsletters distributed in the Territory and interstate in both printed and electronic format.
- In advertisements in newspapers, magazines or television in the Northern Territory and the rest of Australia.
- In a range of printed publications such as government strategy documents or brochures promoting or explaining government services.
- On government websites.
- On government displays.

What if I don't want my photograph to be used somewhere?

It can be quite a surprise to see your photograph blown up two metres tall at a display, or to suddenly find yourself appearing on television. You need to be aware that your photograph may be used in these situations unless you ask for it not to be. If there are circumstances where you do not want your photo used, make sure you write that down on the Talent Release Form you sign. Or if you are giving permission for your photograph to be used for one purpose only, you also need to write this down.

Or contact Chantelle Salandanan on 08 8935 7751.

Why do you need to know if I am Indigenous?

We appreciate that if you are Indigenous, there may be certain cultural sensitivities about using your image.

Step 7 – Organisation logos and Photographs

Include a copy of your logo as a vector file in either Freehand or Illustrator EPS formats or as a high resolution TIFF minimum 300 dpi.

Should your organisation progress as a finalist you will need to supply 10 photographs in digital format (JPEG or TIFF) which showcase the business in action at 300 dpi (high resolution). These photos will be due to awards coordinators by Monday 11 June.

Step 8 – Checklist

Before submitting your nomination, please check:

- All of the assessment criteria have been individually addressed within the word limit applicable to each criterion; and there are no more than ten (10) A4 single sided pages included as attachments (excluding nomination form and talent release form).
- The nomination form is completed and signed
- The declaration form is signed
- The talent release form is completed, signed and included in your nomination.
- A copy of your logo as a vector file in either Freehand or Illustrator EPS formats or as a high resolution TIFF minimum 300 dpi is included.
- There are no video or audiotapes or other bulky materials such as training manuals with your nomination.

Step 9 – Collate you nomination

Collate your nomination form, selection criteria and attachments into one PDF document no larger than 15mb.

Organisation logos and photographs can be sent separately.

Step 10 – Submit your nomination

The preferred method for submitting your completed nomination is via email as one attachment to: trainingawards@nt.gov.au

Please ensure the file size is no larger than 15MB.

If you have any problems submitting your nomination please contact the NT Training Awards team:
